

The garden and wider landscape of this Gloucestershire farmhouse were designed by London-based Graham Lloyd-Brunt

Dan Pearson Studio

Known for his naturalistic planting using perennial plants and grasses and incorporating native trees, Dan Pearson is a leading landscape designer, horticulturalist, writer and advocate of respect for the environment. He has recently completed a new design for Delos at Sissinghurst Castle in Kent, reimagining Harold Nicolson and Vita Sackville-West's vision for their Mediterranean-inspired garden. The studio is at work on projects in Tuscany, Italy, and the US and has been rejuvenating the gardens at Belsay Hall in Northumberland, an English Heritage initiative.

020-7928 3800;

www.danpearsonstudio.com

Del Buono Gazerwitz Landscape Architecture

Italian-born Tommaso del Buono joined forces with American Paul Gazerwitz to set up this landscape-design practice in 2000. Both qualified landscape architects, they have a leading reputation for thoughtful designs, tailored to respond to their surroundings. The practice works internationally and, in addition to its London headquarters, it has an office in Florence, Italy. Current commissions include gardens in Greece, Italy, the US and the Caribbean.

‘They specialise in imaginative, magical gardens with dreamy, re-created follies’

020-7405 7405;

www.delbuono-gazerwitz.co.uk

Harris Bugg Studio

Charlotte Harris and Hugo Bugg run an award-winning practice known for imaginative transformations of gardens at country estates, often in areas requiring careful conservation considerations. Recent projects include London's first rooftop forest, forming part of an urban workspace in Blackfriars, the historic walled kitchen garden at RHS Bridgewater in Salford and the return to Nature of a farm in Devon.

01392 927172; www.harrisbugg.com

Bannerman Design

Landscape of Dreams is an apt title for Isabel and Julian Bannerman's book, given their specialisation in imaginative, magical gardens with abundant herbaceous planting among dreamy, re-created follies and gateways. They have designed gardens for The King at Highgrove, Gloucestershire, and the Castle of Mey, Caithness.

www.bannermansdesign.com

James Alexander-Sinclair

Based in Oxfordshire, James Alexander-Sinclair runs a popular garden-design firm specialising in medium to large country gardens, working across the UK and abroad. Recent projects include gardens for Priscilla Bacon Lodge, a new hospice in Norwich, the renovation of a hotel garden in the Cotswolds, restoration of heathland in Surrey and creating a wildlife habitat in Berkshire.

07515 336356;

www.jamesalexandersinclair.com

Jinny Blom

Accomplished plantswoman Jinny Blom is known for her artistic approach to garden →